Everything to have ready before your sitter's first visit

Food & Feeding

- [ ] Food measured out or feeding instructions written down
- [ ] Treats and where they're kept
- [ ] Food and water bowls in their usual spot
- [ ] Any allergies or foods to avoid

Medication

- [ ] Medications labeled with dosage and time
- [ ] Instructions for how to give it (pill pocket, syringe, etc.)
- [ ] Vet's name and phone number

Gear

- [ ] Leash and collar or harness in a visible spot
- [ ] Poop bags or litter supplies stocked
- [ ] Crate or bed location, if used
- [ ] Favorite toy or comfort item

Behavior Notes

- [ ] Any anxiety, fear, or reactivity your sitter should know about
- [ ] Commands or cues your pet responds to
- [ ] Whether your pet does well with strangers, other pets, or being left alone

Home Access

- [ ] Key, code, or lockbox instructions
- [ ] Alarm code, if applicable
- [ ] Rooms or areas that are off-limits

Emergency Info

- [ ] Your phone number and a backup contact
- [ ] Vet clinic name, address, and phone number
- [ ] Nearest emergency animal hospital

Prepared by June Collins, ABCDT Certified Dog Trainer

561-827-7298 | heelermom318@gmail.com